

Hoseman George Estey, Franklin Engine Company 7, Charlestown Fire Department
(Mutual Aid to Boston)

On March 31, 1852, Hoseman Estey was struck by a falling wall and received broken back and severe internal injuries during a fire in Boston at the Tremont Temple, 88 Tremont Street, Downtown. On August 13, 1853, Hoseman Estey died as a result of those injuries. A citizen, John Hall was killed instantly.